September 2007

Greetings:

The year 2007 has been eventful for those of us involved with the International Shotokan Karate Federation (ISKF) and the National Collegiate Karate Association (NCKA). The ending of our affiliation with the Japan Karate Association (JKA) was a giant step for Master Okazaki, Master Yaguchi, and all of us who have identified ourselves with the classical Japanese Shotokan form of karate. Since joining the "JKA" in 1968 with the Wiesbaden Shotokan Karate Club instructed by Leon Sill at Wiesbaden Air Base in Germany, I have had the distinct privilege of training with the most prestigious martial arts organizations world, the JKA and the ISKF. What gave these organizations their credence was the quality of excellence and dedication of its teachers and membership from their foundation to the present. I have had the honor of training under a host of what I consider to be the finest Japanese karate teachers ever assembled, including Masters Okazaki, Mikami, Yaguchi, Koyama, and Takashina, as well as clinics by Masters Nakayama, Kanazawa, Asai, Ueki, Enoeda, and Osaka. For this training, I will always be indebted. With the secession of the ISKF from the JKA, we, I in particular, will miss the regular contributions of Masters Mikami, Koyama, and Takashina, each of whom I have had very special relationships.

The NCKA is greatly indebted to Master Shojiro Koyama for his leadership over as many years and I can remember. Master Koyama chose to leave the ISKF and remain under the JKA. He has provided a spiritual foundation, leadership, and example that cannot be equaled for college students and those of us involved with collegiate karate programs. Without his guidance, the NCKA would not be what it is today and we are all grateful and appreciative for his principles of karate as an instrument of lifetime health and spiritual unity.

Tony Nakazawa and I have appreciated and will miss his experientially insightful wisdom, leadership quality, and remarkable humor in dealing with the JNCKA and NCKA issues. We, Tony as JNCKA editor and I, as NCKA board chair nominee, and the NCKA leadership will be constantly aware of Master Koyama and his principles as we go about the business of formalizing and bringing to fruition the vision of the future for the NCKA. We are certainly grateful for contribution Master Shojiro Koyama has made to us all.

Main items of business for the meeting in San Francisco at the ISKF National Championships will be the election of the NCKA Board of Directors, some specific revisions to the by-laws, further discussion of the path of collegiate karate that we will be taking. I will be looking forward to seeing you all in San Francisco.

Best regards,

Paul K. Smith, Ph.D.,
NCKA Chairman of the Board
Academic Editor NCKA

September 2007

Greetings!

I am very proud to have this opportunity to extend my greetings to all of our ISKF/US members in the National Collegiate Karate Association. This is a momentous year for all of us beginning with the ISKF independence of the JKA. This disassociation means that we will be growing and expanding to many more countries throughout the world. However, all of this would not be possible if not for our collegiate organizations. Many of us began our karate training in the colleges and universities and I have always stated that our collegiate members are the future of our organization as well. Just as the ISKF is embarking on a bright new future, our collegiate members are doing the same as they begin their college careers. I know that by training in the ISKF, their lives will be forever enhanced and they will have the skills to contribute to make the world a better place. You can do this if you will practice your Dojo Kun and Niju Kun daily in addition to your karate techniques.

The National Collegiate Association has grown tremendously over the past 27 years and all of this would not be possible without the tireless effort by Dr. Paul Smith, our new Chairman of the National Collegiate Karate Association, and the assistance of Dr. Anthony Nakazawa along with all of the other collegiate instructors, many of which volunteer their time to contribute to our organization. I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all of you.

Best of luck to you all and I wish each and every one of you much success in everything you endeavor. Train hard, study hard and treat each other with the respect and dignity as expected from a true martial artist.

Sincerely,

Teruyuki Okazaki
Chairman & Chief Instructor

Purposes of the NCKA

1. To increase awareness of traditional Japanese karate as a sport in the U.S. college/university system.
2. To develop organized collegiate karate across all traditional Japanese styles.
3. To maintain and instill the mental and physical values and benefits of Karate-do.
4. To develop good will among people and places.

NCKA Eligibility Requirements

1. Full time college student (undergraduate or graduate) in good academic standing (2.0 GPA for undergraduate and 3.0 GPA for graduate students on a 4.0 scale for the most recent completed semester). Individual and team event contestant rules follow the official ISKF rules.
2. All team members must attend the same University and/or College. (Teams may consist of members who attend multi-campus within one University system.)
3. Permission to compete from the Regional ISKF Director.
4. Collegiate contestants have 4 academic years in which to complete their NCKA eligibility. The 4 years may be non-consecutive, and without an age limitation (excepting that kumite age restrictions will be according to ISKF rules — 45 years of age).
5. Regional Directors will be responsible for validating student eligibility status as regards full-time attendance, academic standing, and number of participating years.
